Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

One day, Crow was out looking for food. She found a piece of meat. Crow did not want to share the meat with anyone. So, she flew up to a nearby tree. Crow was about to eat the meat when Fox came along. Fox looked up at Crow. He was hungry and wanted to have some meat for supper too.

Fox called out to Crow, "Hello, Crow. Your feathers are beautiful and they are black like midnight. Your eyes are as shiny as diamonds."

"What a nice thing to say," Crow thought. She hopped up and down on her branch and flapped her wings. She was proud of herself.

"I wonder if your voice is as beautiful as your feathers and eyes. Please sing for me so that I can hear your beautiful voice," said Fox. Crow opened her mouth to sing and the meat dropped to the ground. Fox smiled at Crow, grabbed the meat and ran away.
