

Edit for Spelling and Grammar Worksheets

P6 English Language SA1 2014

Contents

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Nan Hua	2
P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Nanyang	3
P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Raffles' Girls	4
P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Rosyth.....	5
P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Tao Nan.....	6
Answer Key	7

Instruction

Correct each word in bold for spelling and each underlined word for grammar. Write the correct word in the relevant space.

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Nan Hua

One day, I returned home to my little girl's third-year party to find her in the corner of the front room. She was (41) defyantly _____ clutching all of her presents, unwilling to let the other children (42) plays _____ with them. The first thing I noticed (43) are _____ several parents in the room witnessing this selfish display. I was (44) arnbearased _____ because I was teaching human relations in the university then and could feel the (45) expektesion _____ of these parents standing by the side.

The (46) atmersefear _____ in the room was tense as the children were crowding around my little daughter with (47) her _____ hands out, asking to play with the presents they had just (48) giving _____, and my daughter was adamantly refusing. I told myself that I should teach my daughter share as the value of sharing is one of the most basic things we (49) beleeeve _____ in.

I walked to my daughter and tried a simple request of asking her to share the presents with her friends, but she (50) shakes _____ her head. The reply was "No!"

Adapted from The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People by Stephen

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Nanyang

It was almost twenty years ago when Toco stumbled into our lives. I was fifteen years old and had just finished school one day. As I was approaching my house, a kitten no older than a month (41) skernpared _____ into my path. "It's Milo!" I exclaimed (42) happy _____. I could hardly believe my eyes. White as snow with a long black tail and two black patches on its forehead, the kitten (43) bear _____ an uncanny resemblance (44) of _____ our family cat that had died just a month earlier. I scooped up the kitten and rushed into my house.

Toco turned out to be much more than merely a (45) suppstitut _____ for Milo. Affectionate, (46) charm _____, sensitive and intelligent, he exuded a personality of his own and soon found a (47) purmanant _____ place in our hearts and in our home. He settled in quickly, lapping up the comfort and attention, probably with the knowledge that life with us was a (48) best _____ option than living on the streets. Toco (49) andeered _____ himself to everyone in the family (50) include _____ my grandmother, who usually had a tepid attitude towards cats. However, it was my mother that Toco shared a special bond with.

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Raffles' Girls

Typhoon Haiyan was an extremely powerful tropical cyclone that devastated Tacloban.

Kyrie Boniface (41) is _____ only a few hours old and seven weeks early, one of the many (42) berths _____ before dawn in an under-equipped and over-crowded hospital in the typhoon (43) raevaeged _____ city in the Philippines.

The nurses, (44) which _____ were working on 24-hour shifts, wrapped him in plastic to keep him warm because they did not have an (45) inquebater _____. They were worried that Kyrie might not survive. His (46) exhausting _____ mother, 21-year-old Emily, lay on a bare mattress on the floor of the next room, watched over by her cousin. Nurse Jerbies Lames said Kyrie needed antibiotics to help him (47) fighths _____ off a possible infection picked up during the (48) komplekayted _____ 4:00am delivery. He could breathe for himself, but needed oxygen from a tall green cylinder that (49) stands _____ nearby, one of only a few dozen the neo-natal ward had access to. Every bit of available space was used to (50) acomodate _____ the many patients streaming into the hospital. The women and their children perched on bed frames that lined the corridor was a pitiful sight.

Adapted from "Typhoon Haiyan: Nurses battle fatigue in tide of Philippine typhoon births-Straits Times"

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Rosyth

Although Paul lived only two kilometres away from the beach, he had never been to the beach before he was ten. His grandmother used to visit his family (41) but _____ warned her grandchildren not to go to the sea. So while his neighbours and classmates trooped happily to the seaside, Paul watched with (42) ennvi _____ from the window of his apartment. Out of respect, Paul's parents did not want to (43) arguing _____ with their sickly headstrong mother. She refused to listen to them. Paul's father tried to compensate for the missed picnics at the beach by buying books for him to read. However, there was still this nagging (44) feel _____ that Paul was missing out on something. The call of the sea was very strong.

Two weeks before Paul's tenth birthday, his grandmother (45) had died _____. Knowing that Paul was eager to go to the beach with his friend, his parents did not object when he requested one morning. Hurriedly, he cycled to the beach with Tim. He was full of (46) antisipayshen _____.

When Paul finally reached the beach, he sprinted (47) enthusiastic _____ to the sea. With his slippers in his hands, Paul paddled the waves that (48) approached _____ playfully. For him, it was a magical moment. The sea gulls were shrilly screaming (49) on _____ his head while waves were pounding waves on the rocks. It was a new (50) expirense _____ for him. For the very first time, he could feel the sensation of salt water on his feet.

Adapted from The Seaside:1994

P6 Edit for spelling and Grammar - SA1 – Tao Nan

Upcycling is the process of converting old or discarded materials into something useful. However, let us consider the (41) intaent _____ of upcycling. It gives the item a new and often better (42) uses _____. On the other hand, recycling takes (43) cornsiewmer _____ materials and breaks them down so the base materials can be remade into a new product of (44) less _____ quality. When you upcycle an item, you are not breaking down the materials. You may be (45) rifashtioning _____ it. In addition, the upcycled item is (46) tepeecaly _____ of a much better quality than the original item.

However, upcycling is not a new concept. In the past, when many families (47) has _____ very little (48) aekonomik _____ or material resources, families reused and repurposed items over and over again until they (49) become _____ no longer useful. Feed sacks were made into dresses while old doors were (50) transforming _____ into table tops. Strangely, what was old has become new once more.

Adapted from <http://hipcycle.com>

Answer Key

Verified by www.sgtestpaper.com

Subject: Primary 6 English – Edit for spelling and Grammar
Paper: SA1 2014

School: Nan Hua

- 41. defiantly
- 42. play
- 43. was
- 44. embarrassed
- 45. expectation
- 46. atmosphere
- 47. their
- 48. been given
- 49. believe
- 50. shook

School: Nanyang

- 41. scampered
- 42. happily
- 43. bore
- 44. to
- 45. substitute
- 46. charming
- 47. permanent
- 48. better
- 49. endeared
- 50. including

Raffles' Girls

- 41. was
- 42. births
- 43. ravaged
- 44. who
- 45. incubator
- 46. exhausted
- 47. fight
- 48. complicated
- 49. stood
- 50. accommodate

Rosyth

- 41. and
- 42. envy
- 43. argue
- 44. feeling
- 45. died
- 46. anticipation
- 47. enthusiastically
- 48. approached
- 49. above
- 50. experience

Tao Nan

- 41. intent
- 42. use
- 43. consumer
- 44. lesser
- 45. refashioning
- 46. typically
- 47. had
- 48. economic
- 49. became
- 50. transformed